KILLEFERS ARE KING BEES

With National Fans. Wade Gets Regular Berth at Second. Bill May Go To Washington.

McAleer, manager of the Washington team, likes the tribe of Killifer when it comes to baseball ability. This is shown by the fact he has given "Red" a permanent place at second base on his team, and when O'Connor asked for waivers on "Bill" Killifer, McAleer said "No," intimating he can use the boy himself if no other American league club wants his services.

Speaking of the Killifers, "Red" and "Bill," J. Ed Grillo in the Washington Star says:

Manager Jim McAleer has refused to waive on Catcher Bill Killifer of the St. Louis team. Manager O'Connor asked for waivers on his young catcher, who is a brother of Wade Killifer of the Nationals, several days ago, but McAleer refused to consent to his going from the league.

"Whether or not O'Connor will allow Killifer to come here, is, of course, a matter of conjecture. O'Connor when asked yesterday stated that Killifer was suffering from a sprained ankle and that he was not ready to do anything with him. In fact, the Browns' manager insinuated that his team was none too long on catchers and that Killifer was a pretty handy man to have around.

"The fact that a club asks for waivers on a player does not mean much these days. Sometimes these waivers are asked for just to feel out the other clubs.

"At any rate, McAleer refused to waive, and if St. Louis does not want Killifer he can have a berth here. It was McAleer who secured Killifer from the Texas league, and he thinks he has the making of a splendid backstop. Killifer is twenty-three years old.

"After three years' experience in the major leagues Wade Killifer has finally secured a regular position. It is of course up to him to hold it, but unless he shows every symptom of being incompetent he will be the Nationals' regular second baseman from this out.

"Killifer will be kept at second base from this out," said Manager McAleer last night. "Until he shows me that he is not competent to play the position he shall remain there. I believe that he will develop into a great ball player. He has everything that goes to make a good man, and I shall keep him at second until he learns how to play the position. I am satisfied that he will learn, and while he is learning he will be of great aid to the team with his stick."

"What will become of Schaefer?" was asked.

"We will keep Schaefer," was the reply.

"Notwithstanding the fact that McAleer says he will keep him, the placing of Killifer at second base virtually means the passing of Herman Schaefer from major league circles, for it is not likely that there is any other club in the league that will want to use him when the local club gets ready to let him go."

BIG REAL ESTATE DEALS

Made by Decker & Bailey Agency. One the Jensen Place at Three Mile Lake to be Platted.

The Decker & Bailey Real Estate agency has made two real estate deals during the past week. One was the beautiful country home of Rob McWilliams, which was sold to a Mr. Shepard of South Dakota, consideration $10,000. The other was what is known as the Jensen place at Three Mile lake, which was sold to M. V. B. Pitkin of Chicago. This property has a fine frontage on Three Mile lake. Civil Engineer Dana P. Smith has been at work platting this property for some time, and Mr. Pitkin will push the work to completion, when these lots will be placed on the market. Full details of his plans will be made public in a later issue of The True Northerner.

FIXING POLITICAL FENCES.

W. M. Stoughton is taking a lay-off from his duties at the K. L. S. & C. depot. Mr. Ernberger, the company's relief agent from Covert, has taken his place as station agent here. Warner is busy fixing up his political fences and will probably be very busy from now until primary day. He states that he is well pleased with the outlook.

GRAPES ARE NOT ALL KILLED

Vines Brought to The True Northerner
Office Show Many Fruit Buds in Good Condition.

Mister Austin brought to The True Northerner office this week, two small sections of grape vines clipped from the vineyard of Andrew Shepard. If these clippings are fair samples of the vines in Shepard's vineyard, he will have a fair crop of grapes. The consensus of opinion among grape growers is that while in some localities the crop will be exceedingly light, on the average there will be a fair crop. The cold weather succeeding the freeze has kept the buds back, so it is still impossible to estimate the exact damage done, or the correct prospects for the coming crop. There will be grapes however, and more than the average grower is looking for. This only emphasizes one of the sayings of the late Wm. Butler, who said that "We always had to have everything killed at least three times, before we could expect a full crop."

IMPROVEMENT CO. TO BOOST

city advertising, Manager Thomas tells us that he has requests for board and lodging for the summer months from various sources, and many of our people will be glad to embrace this feature of summer business.

On the whole it appears that Maple Lake will be a source of attraction, starting this summer, for pleasure seekers, and we have the opportunity of making Paw Paw a summer resort second to none in this part of the state.

The Maple Lake Improvement company have a large ad. in this issue of The True Northerner suggesting what you can do toward this end.

The gentlemen connected with the Maple Lake Improvement Co. are Thomas J. Cavanaugh, president; S. O. Kenyon, vice president; H. L. McNeil, secretary and treasurer and W. J. Thomas general manager. The rooms over E. Smith & Co.'s store have been fitted up for offices for the company. The subdivision of lots have been improved and appear very attractive and everything is ready for the summer people that the extensive advertising that the company are doing will necessarily bring.

Paw Paw township has opened a new road across the dam and through "Way" side west to the road leading to Lake Park.

The Thayer property on the west side of the lake, which was purchased by Messrs. Flook and McEachron, will also be platted and lots placed on the market.

NEED THE MONEY.

If you are a good alumnus you will pay your dues. It takes money to run the association, and the small amount each one is required to pay is insignificant compared to the benefits derived from it. Don't wait to be asked to pay, remit at once to the secretary.

ANOTHER GIANT ELM.

Speaking of "giant elm trees," there is one in Mrs. H. C. Drown's yard on the corner of Main and Niles streets that is fully as large if not larger in some respects than the one spoken of in the columns of The True Northerner last week. Mrs. Drown has lived there to see the tree grow from a small shrub.

AT GRAND LODGE.

Past Grand Master R. W. Broughton, W. R. Sellick, master of the local lodge, and Hon. B. F. Heckert, member of the judiciary committee, are all in Saginaw this week to attend the annual session of the grand lodge, F. & A. M. of Michigan.
